

“DON’T MISS ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY TO SHOWCASE YOUR BUSINESS”

at

The Caribbean Expo & Symposium
“The Caribbean – Not Just Sand, Sea and Sun”

Join the Caribbean community at Capital Community College on Friday September 17, 2004 from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. for the first Caribbean Expo & Symposium in Hartford. This program is designed to celebrate the contributions of Caribbean people to the state of Connecticut.

The program is brought to you by the Office of the Secretary of State in cooperation with the West Indian Foundation, Capital Community College, Central Connecticut State University and the World Affairs Council. The event will include workshops on business, insurance, immigration, health and much more. There will be travel experts on hand for those of you who enjoy traveling or intend to do business in the Caribbean. There will also be opportunities for exhibiting your business, but space is limited.

An excellent opportunity also for you to view works of local, national and international artists presently in the “CARIBBEAN ART EXHIBITION” with Yvonne Harris the curator.

The works have been on display since July 15 and will end on Saturday September 18, 2004, a program sponsored by the West Indian Foundation in cooperation with Capital Community College, 950 Main Street – Hartford, Connecticut.

To exhibit, call Keith L. Carr, Sr. at (860) 241-0379 or visit www.westindianfoundation.org or www.ctshowcase.biz to register. You must be present to receive available prizes; limited amount of display spaces is still available.

The special event winds down with steel pan music and a Caribbean Punch Reception from 5p.m. to 7 p.m. Many celebrated Caribbean personalities are expected to be present.

For more information you may contact Harland Henry, Office of the Secretary of the State by e-mail at Harland.henry@po.state.ct.us or call 860.509.6258.